Present Check

Dianas Aid SS Hope

Redondo Beach Dianas, California Federated Women's Club, Marina District, has joined with the General Federation of Women's Clubs in an effort to assist Project HOPE (Health Opportunity for People Everywhere). A check for $200 has been allocated to finance a student nurse aboard the SS Hope. This amount will pay for training, uniforms, supplies, maintenance expense and educational materials.

Project HOPE is an independent, non-profit corporation in the field of health between people of the United States and those of developing nations. The SS Hope's missions to Indonesia, Vietnam, Peru, Ecuador, Guinea and Columbia have brought teaching and training to local medical personnel of these nations.

The purpose of Project HOPE is to teach and train doctors, dentists, nurses, pharmacists, dieticians, and other paramedical staff in developing nations. During the course a 10-month stay in any one particular country, local counterparts are trained. These trainees continue to practice what they have learned long after the SS Hope has gone on to another country. The SS Hope has 598 accommodations; it has 230 beds and three operating rooms, and has been chartered to Project HOPE since 1960 by the Navy.
